- Coach clients in determining realistic job targets and create customized search strategies to meet goals within housing timelines.
- Collaborate with clients to create short and long term strategies for overcoming employment barriers.
- Coach clients through the entire search process from assessment and resume development to job search (online, phone, face-to-face networking, agencies/recruiters), interview preparation and salary negotiating. Coach clients post placement on job success as needed.
- Write, edit and critique resumes, cover letters and social media profiles.
- Report and record client progress and concerns via database updates, case management meetings, and individual collaboration as needed.
- Research viable, appropriate training programs for clients needing job readiness.
- Provide input on grant applications as related to career services.
- Enlist collaboration, as needed; from community-based members of the clients' support team including CalWorks case managers, DASU case managers, and education program directors.
- Engage with workforce development partnerships and employers to provide meaningful referrals to clients.
- Record, track and report all client utilization and outcomes data for monthly, quarterly and annual reports.
- Remain current on changes to and best practices of employment/recruiting markets, and technology advances for job search and resume formats.
- Develop, edit and deliver workshop content including, written materials, slide shows, and presentations.
- Create and design workshop advertising and marketing (electronic and paper).
- Perform all administrative tasks related to workshop scheduling, marketing and pre/post-workshop event.

Additional Responsibilities (10% of time spent)
